bringing out tonight more remarks by W. C. S. & P. W. Brother Gitchell said when he was a boy the grocery stores kept rum for sale just as much as mulasses or kerosene said when one came and traded they treated them to a drink of rum when they went to market they generally took a 2 qt jug got that filled with rum then done their other trading quite different now Bro A. D. Bartlett tells quite a good story about when he was a boy. W. C. F. is really glad that the P. W. is going to leave off smoking.
He is wholly determined to try and be a better boy in the year to come than he has been for the last year going to turn over a new leaf. Brother Gitchell says that there has been the best speeches made tonight that was ever made in this hall in regard to smoking and swearing. More remarks by W. C. He tells a good story about a little boy 5 or 6 years old in Boston trying to get his father home from a drunken spree scrape which he saw when he was up there.
